A “WEEK OF BASKETBALL” AT THE SANTA ANA STAR CENTER

NMSU, CLEVELAND HIGH SCHOOL, AND THE HARLEM GLOBETROTTERS ALL TAKE TO THE COURT THE WEEK OF FEBRUARY 8TH

(Rio Rancho, NM) – The City of Rio Rancho and the Santa Ana Star Center are proud to announce an exciting week of basketball. The week kicks off with New Mexico State playing Northern New Mexico College at 7:00 PM on Monday, February 8. The Aggies just moved into first place in the WAC standings and are looking to make their annual push for an invitation to the NCAA Tournament. On Friday, February 12, the Cleveland High School basketball boys’ basketball team will play a district game against Volcano Vista at 7:00 PM with the C-Team starting things off at 4:00 PM. To conclude the week, the Harlem Globetrotters will make their return to the Star Center on Saturday, February 13 for a matinee match up with the World All Stars. The game is slated for 2:00 PM.

“From college to high school to the entertaining Harlem Globetrotters, Rio Rancho will be the place to be for those who have an appreciation for the game of basketball. The best part about next week is it is all very affordable, family entertainment,” says Rio Rancho Mayor, Gregg Hull.

The court will be down for the week and will be back in commission the week of March 7 for the NMAA State Basketball Championships. From February 8 to March 10, 29 games will be played at the Santa Ana Star Center. For tickets to all of the events, call 888.694.4849, visit www.SantaAnaStarCenter.com, in person at the Don Chalmers Ford Box Office at Santa Ana Star Center, or Santa Ana Star Casino Players Club.
